High school graduation, perhaps more than any other achivement, is the greatest step in life. It closes forever the chapter of adolescence — of being regarded as too immature to accept responsibilities — and opens the door to serious ambitions and accomplishments.

Each class of graduates faces new challenges, particularly in these times of fast-changing circumstances. Each graduate is expected to adjust to the conditions that will make him an important part of the completed pattern. These adjustments and the acceptance of responsibility make him a valued asset to his community and his country and earn for him the recognition he has sought so far in life.

Knouse Foods extends sincere congratulations to the class of '59 and wishes each member the success he desires.

The 1958 Junior-Senior Prom

On May 16, 1958, at 8:00 p.m. the weary but satisfied Junior Class presented their going-away present to the Seniors. It was the annual Junior-Senior Prom — the theme of which was "Moonlight and Roses." The decoration was simple but very effective. The sky of blue spangled with silver stars, the immense yellow moon, the fountain complete with goldfish (live) and white lawn furniture against a stone wall completed the soothing effect. The music was furnished by Bud Codori and his ensemble. Pictures of those who wished them were taken on a log bridge under which ran a winding blue stream. An enjoyable time was had by everyone. All in all, the prom was a huge success and the juniors, seniors, and faculty members went to sleep with beautiful memories of a wonderful evening.

ZMESSAGE

"Good by Forever Old Fellas And Gals"

Humor

An old Indian brought his watch in to be repaired. When the jeweler took the back off, a dead bug fell out.

The Indian, astonished, exclaimed, "Ug, no wonder watch stopped — engineer dead!"

Awed by his student's new diamond ring, Mr. Allison asked for the particulars.

"Oh," said Marian, "When Grandma died, she left $1,000.00 for a stone in her memory. This is it."

He was seated in the parlor and he said unto the light — "Either you or I, old fellow, will be turned down tonight."

Foolosophy — It's better to have a husband who comes in handy around the house than one who comes in unexpectedly!

A small child was explaining to her younger brother that it was wrong to work on Sunday.

"But what about policemen," said the boy. "They have to work on Sunday. Don't they go to heaven?"

"Of course not," replied his sister. "They're not needed there."

The pupils had all been photographed and the teacher was trying to persuade them each to buy a copy of the group picture.

"Just think how nice it will be to look at it when you are grown up and say, 'there's Rose; she's married,' or 'that's Billy; he's a sailor'."

A small voice at the back of the room piped up, "And there's teacher; she's dead."

No man knows what hard luck is until he buys a new suit with two pairs of pants . . . and then burns a hole in the coat.

Arsonists aren't the only guys who get in trouble when they start playing with fire.

Young Thing: "Do you think that absence makes the heart grow fonder?"

Voice of Experience: "Definitely! Every time that Jack goes out of town, I like Bob better!"

Betty: "Will you please tell me the difference between nervousness and shyness?"

Mr. Laird: "Pretty women make me shy. Their husbands make me nervous."

The head nurse at the hospital entered a room and found one of the new nurses holding both wrists of a recently admitted patient.

"You don't have to hold both wrists to check the pulse," stormed the head nurse.

"I'm not holding both wrists to check his pulse," replied Pat. "I'm holding them to check his impulses."

Harry: "What do you mean you got that black eye from a fire?"

Bob: "Margie caught me kissing an old flame."

When you are old and full of years,
You must give up the cup that cheers,
Golf, tennis, and badminton, too,
But, alas, the women give up you!

Good judgment comes from experience and experience comes from poor judgment.

Advisor

We the class of "59" wish to express deep appreciatin to Mr. White for his able guidance and assistance.

Thanks also go to Mr. Myers who aided us during our years in eighth through eleventh grades.

Senior Class History

1955 - 56

We entered dear old B. H. S. in September "55" happy and excited. This was our first big step toward Seniordom. We actively participated in Band, sports, Honor Society, plays and other activities. Nevertheless, time was found to visit the County Courthouse and the State Capitol. Our president was Mary Lou Finfrock and our advisor Edward Myers.

1956 - 57

We returned in "56" with David Dull as our president. Activities were never shirked nor were such money-making projects as selling candy at noontime and at games. The profits were, of course, for our Prom, Yearbook and senior trip.

1957 - 58

Hurrah! We were now "jolly juniors" or, as we said, "almost seniors." Class rings were received in the fall and proudly displayed to all. Projects that year included selling pennants and hats, hot dogs, and pretzels. The highlight of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom, of which we were justly proud.

1958 - 59

Seniors at last, but we couldn't help pinching ourselves. Our two goals, aside from graduating, were publishing the Mirror and raising funds for our Senior trip. In order to raise money we sold candy, cokes, do-nuts, jackets and held a Buddy Deane Hop. Our able president was Robert Nyce and our advisor Mr. White. With spring came our trip to New York and, of course, commencement.

So long, B. H. S; with you we leave many fond memories and wonderful friendships.

"Professor Pee Wee" Commercial

"Well, you've gotta admit . . . "

Choir 10, 11, 12; Band 10, 11, 12; Spring Musical 10, 11, 12; Tri-Hi-Y 10, 11; Homeroom President 10; Student Council 10; Intramural Basketball 11, 12; Intramural Volleyball 12; B-Club 12.

"Professor" is a drummer in our band,
Her dislike for work and troubles go hand in hand.
To the state of A-L-A, she writes many letters,
She and that Dodge should be put in strong fetters.

Larry Ray Carey

"Skinney" Industrial

"Quite!"

Senior Art Club 10, 11, 12.

Food and Larry go hand in hand,
His art work is always in demand.
To travel to Paris is his secret wish,
What money he could save if he were a fish.

Larry Eugene Barbour

"Larry" Commercial

"What do you care?"

Band 10, 11; Track 10. —

Larry will always be a "Barbour,"
Though he doesn't snip your hair.
He is seen at Schwartz's Station,
Wiping windshields and pumping air.

Deborah Collier Bedford

"Deb" Academic

"You're a nut!"

B-Hi-Times Reporter 10, 11, 12; Choir 12; Majorette 11, 12; F. T. A. 10, 11, 12; Tri-Hi-Y 10, 11.

Debbie "Scatterbrain" Bedford she's called
Into court for her driving, she'll someday be hauled.
An event at the slumber fest whcih brought lots of howls,
Was our gal at midnight chasing the cows.

Donald Eugene Boyer

"Duck" Industrial

"Dat's okay!"

F. F. A. 10; Shop Service Club 11, 12.

Driving to Holly in his own little Merc,
To see some cute dolly is certainly not work.
Bowling with the boys is another hobby, too,
Next year we may see Don in U. S. Air Force blue.

John Larimore Boyer

"Larry" Academic

"Holy Freaks!"

Hi-Y 10, 12, President 11; Choir 10, 11, Treasurer 12.

With Chet and Ken our Larry is seen,
In Hi-Y the three of them make a great team.
We don't know what the future may bring,
But lots of luck in everything.

Ronald Leroy Arnsberger

"Ronnie" Vocational

"Hay Seed!"

F. F. A. 10, 11, 12.

Ronnie is in F. F. A.
Adept at plowing and raking hay.
He likes having fun and playing games,
To work in a factory is one of his aims.

Susan Dee Baer

"Suz" Academic

"No kidding!"

Basketball 10; Senior Band 10, 11, 12; Dance Band 12; F. T. Pianist Suz is college bound,
With the twelve-one gang she's usually found,
At P. J. parties, she'll never sleep,
And memories of fun, she'll always keep.

Sinda Irene Baker

"Cindy" Commercial

"I guess no, I don't know!"

Minstrel Show 10; Public Speaking Club 10, Vice-President 11, President 12; B-Hi-Times Reporter 10, 11, 12; Typist 11, 12; Homeroom President 12; Yearbook Typist 12; Student Council 12; Intramural Hockey 12; Intramural Basketball 12; Intramural Volleyball 12.

Our Sinda B. is oh so quiet,
She's not the type to cause a riot.
Reading and watching TV she enjoys,
But Sinda have you forgotten the boys?

Vernice Irene Baldwin

"Vernice" Commercial

"Oh, I guess so!"

Public Speaking Club 12.

Vernice likes Elvis and rock and roll,
That constant giggle is certainly droll.
Collecting records is her main delight,
She listens to them both day and night.

Robert Emerson Nyce

Long, tall Nyce as his name implies,
Never cheats and never lies.
His likes envelop a red-headed doll,
Who tags along as his private "Moll."

Harold Robert Baltzley, Jr.
Vice-President

"Snooks" Academic

"Hey Joe!"

Football 10, 11, 12; Basketball 10, 11; Track 10, 11, 12; Varsity Club 10, 11, President 12; Class Vice-President 12.

Snooks is quite the athlete.
His second home is on York Street.
Hunting, fishing with buddy, Joe,
In rain or sleet or hail or snow.

Phyllis Ann Cashman
Secretary

"Phyl" Commercial

"You're crazy!"

Tri-Hi-Y 10, 11, Secretary 12; B-Hi-Times Reporter 11, Business Manager 12; Homeroom President 11, Vice-President 12; Student Council 11; Intramural Basketball 11; Literary Editor of Mirror 12; Class Secretary 12; B-Club 12; Intramural Volleyball 12.

Phyl will make a neat lap-sitter.
She's assiduous, smart and sure no quitter.
A golfer of the notorious five,
It's a wonder Ralphie is still alive.

Ruth Mae Taylor
Treasurer

"Ruthie" Vocational

"Well, I'll be!"

F. H. A. 10, 11, 12; Junior Red Cross 12.

Ruthie Taylor is cute and neat,
Joyce and Shirley, with her, you'll meet.
Flat tires irk this pretty miss
While midnight movies bring her bliss.

Alma Mater

Biglerville High School we are bringing our gifts of homage due.
With songs and praises ringing, our debts we owe to you;
Other high schools have their colors, which are loved by young and old,
But the noblest and the fairest are Biglerville's black and gold.

When we enter life's great battle, and high school days are o'er
We think of thee and love thee as ne'er we've done before.
Our hearts will surely linger, our lives will ever tell,
We love thee, Alma Mater, true-hearted Biglerville.
